- II. Public Comment on Proposed Rezoning and the creation of the Parks and Recreation District.- City Manager Lee Bailey discussed the overlay district for the park area. It would add restrictions as to what kinds of businesses can be placed in the area so that it would make the parks and recreation district a family friendly zone.
- III. Mr. Harlin, who owns property on Teague St., was concerned about the ability of the city to sell alcohol at events, but was otherwise okay with the zoning change. Mr. Pearson stated he was against alcohol in all forms, but was here to support the ordinance. The mayor asked if there were any others that wanted to speak, and no one else came forward.
- IV. Adjourn- A motion was made by Councilman Durham to end the public hearing. A second was made by Councilman Smith. The vote passed unanimously. The meeting adjourned at 5:37 p.m.
